October 22, 2019 The Tolerance Data program is designed to provide technician-friendly functions, which ensure fast and accurate access to the latest data. May 8, 2014 Category:Named data typesDucks, Bears leave it all on field as Black rushes to finish fourth in G-South Senior Karen Yost (right) was arguably the team's top hitter, going 6-for-13 with two doubles and a home run. Freshman Katie Brannon went 2-for-6 with a pair of singles while making her second appearance as a pinch hitter. Sophomore Emily Jordan also went 2-for-5 with a home run of her own. Senior Glynnis O'Brien and sophomore Neame Turkalo were the starting pitchers for the Bruins, making their 14th straight start as a team. O'Brien finished with 10 strikeouts and two wins and three losses while Turkalo finished with two wins and four losses and threw 111 pitches over her four starts. Prior to the contest, GHS President Donna Flanagan was arrested by Portland police on charges of reckless conduct and failure to appear in court. Police arrested Flanagan as she returned to her vehicle following a basketball game. Police said Flanagan admitted she was aware that she had left the game early but she believed she had complied with the game's posted time limit. Flanagan said she was confused by the police stop and seemed unaware that she had been arrested until officers entered her car, grabbed her by the legs and dragged her into a patrol vehicle. Flanagan was given a court date at the end of the week for charges of failing to return a citation and reckless conduct. The Ducks outscored the Bears 14-6 in the third as they took the lead early in the game. The Ducks pushed their lead to three in the fifth as they went 6-for-10 with five runs while the Bears were blanked in the bottom of the inning. With the score 6-3 in favor of the Ducks, the Bears put up two runs in the sixth to make the score 7-6 in favor of the Ducks but eventually came up short as the Ducks struck again in the bottom of the inning. The Ducks scored three in the eighth before the Bears came back in the bottom of the frame with two more runs. In the top of the ninth, the Ducks added three more runs off of Lauren Misheck and Amanda Earley to hold off a late charge from Portland.
